VISION

Learn about
Partnership:

COSILOVEYOU is a nationally affiliated City-Gospel movement dedicated to bringing the resources of the local church alongside broader efforts in Colorado Springs, to address some of our community's most pressing issues. Through city-wide days of service and celebration, along with strategic initiatives and partnerships, we activate local churches and people of faith to have a significant impact on the present and future of our city.

We are motivated by a vision that, someday, the local Church will be our city's most trusted partner in alleviating human suffering and advancing human flourishing. By working with partners across faith, business, nonprofit, and civic sectors, we want every woman, man, and child to experience the tangible love of Jesus, and have every opportunity to experience a flourishing life and community.

Dear Friend,

Bringing churches together for the sake of the “common good” in our city has never been easy, but 2023 contained a number of landmark shifts for COSILoveYou. In July, we celebrated our fifth anniversary, which felt significant for two reasons. First, after years of seeking the best ways to serve our city through the collective efforts of local churches, it feels like we have found stability, earned credibility, and gained a reputation for doing good work with a spectrum of partners in our community—COSILoveYou, and its partner churches—has become a trusted name.

Second, we made a series of organizational changes that we have been planning for several years, but which took careful timing and consideration to execute. After five years of significant operational support from Woodmen Valley Chapel and Discovery Church, COSILoveYou has transitioned to operating fully independently, with the desire to represent the broad array of churches across our area. While we will always be grateful for the role Woodmen, Discovery, and other churches played in supporting us generously during our startup season, this adjustment means a greater demand on the financial support from our community.

The effort to bring churches together has been driven by an overarching vision “to see the church of Colorado Springs become our city’s most trusted partner in alleviating human suffering and advancing human flourishing”—a vision too large for one church or organization to accomplish. This past year, let alone the past five, have taught us that when God’s people show up for Good in our city, there is very little with which to argue. But it needs more hands—the hands of generous people—filled with the love of Jesus, who want to see His love transform our city like the way He’s transformed our hearts. It needs your hands.

Will you join us?

For the City,

Stu Davis
Executive Director

UNITE AND IGNITE

Since our establishment, one of our core values has been summed up in a single word: communitas. It's the idea that unity is accelerated by a shared mission. We exist to bring together God's Church in unity for the sake of our city's peace. By offering events and opportunities to come together, the people of God become a force for good in Colorado Springs.

“Thank you for seeing a need in our community and for figuring out a way to meet it and bring faith leaders together.”

THE CHURCH OF COLORADO SPRINGS

The church has never been limited to a building, nor many buildings spread across one community. The Church is a collection of people united by their love for Christ and for one another. COSILoveYou works with churches across every zip code, denomination, tradition, and racial mix to fully demonstrate the love of Jesus to every neighborhood.

“

COSILoveYou really is the organization leading the way in helping Colorado Springs area churches connect to the most urgent and critical needs of our community, while also providing a space for Church fellowship across denominations, sizes, and ministry philosophies.”

THAT EVERY WOMAN, MAN, AND CHILD

We believe that the love of Jesus is for every person and has the power to transform whole neighborhoods—even an entire city. Our commitment that “all are welcome to serve and be served” means that we will work with anyone in any part of the city who is willing to let the Church show up in love and service.

“Without the Backpack Bash, I don't know if we would have been able to get backpacks and supplies this year. It made it fun for the kids while also helping the adults with no embarrassment about needing help.”

We work to extend Jesus' transformative love to as many as possible, injecting joy and dignity into every opportunity to serve. Events are just the beginning; we want to catalyze the movement of God's people into the city, for the city, for everyday transformation.

“

I have been volunteering with COSILoveYou for 6 years. Every event allows me to give back to my community and meet others who also share a love of Christ and want to be His hands and feet impacting others. It brings my family together to help make a positive impact.”
